Zhi Zhou,

Thank you so much for taking the time out of your busy schedule to meet with me.

I thoroughly enjoyed hearing about the vast array of problems that your team is facing with significant, real-world impacts that span risk management both domestically, and internationally. With thousands, of employees, millions of drives, and billions of dollars, I can truly see the impact that the risk organization has on a day-to-do basis, and what an interesting culture it creates within your staff.

Additionally, the personal story about your recent Uber Eats experience involving that incredibly unique driver is something that warmed my heart. I am so happy you shared that with me, and it's an anecdote that I also shared with my family later that day!

I hope we may have the opportunity to collaborate in the future.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jason L. Seto
